Pat Schad orchestrated the first annual Artisan Fair (11/13/2006) using verandahs and parking lot of Community Center. Terra Waldron and the DIC Board approved a one day sale. All DIC artists were asked to contribute arts and crafts for event.

Dataw Island Women's Golf Association asked VAC submit artwork for their cookbook; Dale Martin headed committee.

Hanging system was purchased for photography wall.

Plans were made for a Flower Show with Garden Club next year. Our artists create in their medium and gardeners create floral designs interpreting our artworks.

Mermere cake donated to Dataw Dames and Dandies for cake auction; about $400 realized for Relay for Life.

Beaufort Arts Council sponsored a mermaid decorating contest for Beaufort charities – Donna McKeown was chairperson of Dataw's "Mermere."
We had an ever increasing treasury balance.

Purchase were table easels, additional lighting, overhead mirror for demos, spot lights

GUEST SPEAKERS

Guest speaker Ed Funk, photographer, encouraged (6/5/05) photographers to become adventuresome and creative; showed many of his works and techniques

Melba Cooper (9/25/06) gave a demo and lecture on
"Searching for the Artist Within"

Carrie Catlin (3/06 and 10/2) gave portraiture workshop using mediums of artists' choice.

ANNUAL MEETING

Bill Mead, local artist visionary, wowed us at the 2007 annual meeting with his bowler hat and video presentation of himself at work painting lowcountry scenes hosting gigantic and beautiful fruits and vegetables. Mead's works were being hung in Art and Soul Gallery and Fordham Market as well as Lady's Island Market.

Membership was 150 members.
